

Traveling to Warner Robins

Most visitors will find it more convenient to fly into Atlanta, rent a car, and drive to Warner Robins. The Atlanta airport is on the South side of Atlanta and is very easy to access. The airport is about 90 miles from Warner Robins, about 1-1/2 hours driving time, 4-6 lane interstate all the way.

From Atlanta

From Atlanta Airport (Approximately 90 miles): Follow signs to I-75 South heading towards Macon. You will stay on I-75 for approximately 60 miles; you will have two options once you get close to Macon. (1) Stay on I-75 and go through Macon OR (2) take I-475 bypass around Macon for approximately 15 miles and end up back on I-75. Proceed South on I-75. Take Exit #146 - Highway 247 Connector/Watson Blvd and turn LEFT. Travel East for approximately 8.6 miles until Watson dead ends into Hwy. 247 (you will cross rail road tracks and stop at a traffic light) - Robins AFB will be directly in front of you. Turn Left onto Hwy. 247 and then Right into the Main Gate/Visitors Center (Gate 2).

Fly to Macon

From Macon Airport (Approximately 10 miles): Turn RIGHT from rental car parking lot. Turn RIGHT at the blinking light; cross rail road tracks. You will come to a stop at Hwy. 247 and will want to turn RIGHT. Proceed South on Hwy. 247 for approximately 9 miles heading towards Bonaire. Robins AFB will be on your left. Turn left into in the Main Gate/Visitors Center (Gate 2).

Entering Robins AFB

Enter thru Gate 2 on Highway 247, Stop first at the Visitors Center and pick up a gate pass. In the morning, the visitors center is usually pretty busy, allow extra time (10-15 minutes) for this exercise.

Visitors going to Robins Conference Center. After picking up gate pass, continue through the main gate (Second Street) and make a right on Robins Parkway at the light. Make a left on Martin Luther King Blvd. Continue until you see Conference Center on the left.
